Title: Report on Visit to Orphanage and Donation Drive

Introduction

As a part of social responsibility and community service activities, the students organized a visit to a local orphanage with the objective of spreading happiness and extending support to underprivileged children. The activity aimed to inculcate values of compassion, empathy, and social commitment among students.

Objectives:

- To provide support and encouragement to orphaned children.
- To develop a sense of social responsibility among students.
- To contribute to the welfare of society through collective efforts.
- To create awareness about the importance of helping needy individuals.

Report:

Visit to Orphanage and Donation Drive

The visit was organized on 14th Feb 2026 at Udyogratn V. R. Velankar Balakashram, Sangli. Prior to the visit, NSS Volunteers voluntarily collected donations from their classmates and staff members. The collected amount was utilized for purchasing fresh fruits and providing financial assistance to the orphanage.

During the visit, NSS Volunteers with the children, shared experiences, and spent quality time with them. Various fruits such as bananas, apples, oranges, and mangoes were distributed among the children. In addition, a donation amount collected by the students was handed over to the orphanage management to support the children's educational and daily needs.

Outcomes

- The children were delighted to receive the fruits and interact with the NSS Volunteers.
- NSS Volunteers gained valuable insights into the challenges faced by orphaned children.
- The activity strengthened the spirit of kindness, generosity, and teamwork among participants.
- The donation contributed to the welfare and development of the children residing in the orphanage.

Conclusion

The visit to the orphanage was a meaningful and enriching experience for all participants. The donation of fruits and the contribution of the collected amount brought joy to the children and reinforced the importance of social service. Such activities inspire students to become responsible citizens and continue contributing positively to society.

The visit was successfully organized by Mr.Anis Shaikh and Mr.Abhijit Salunkhe NSS Program Officers, along with all NSS Volunteers.
